

Privacy for her

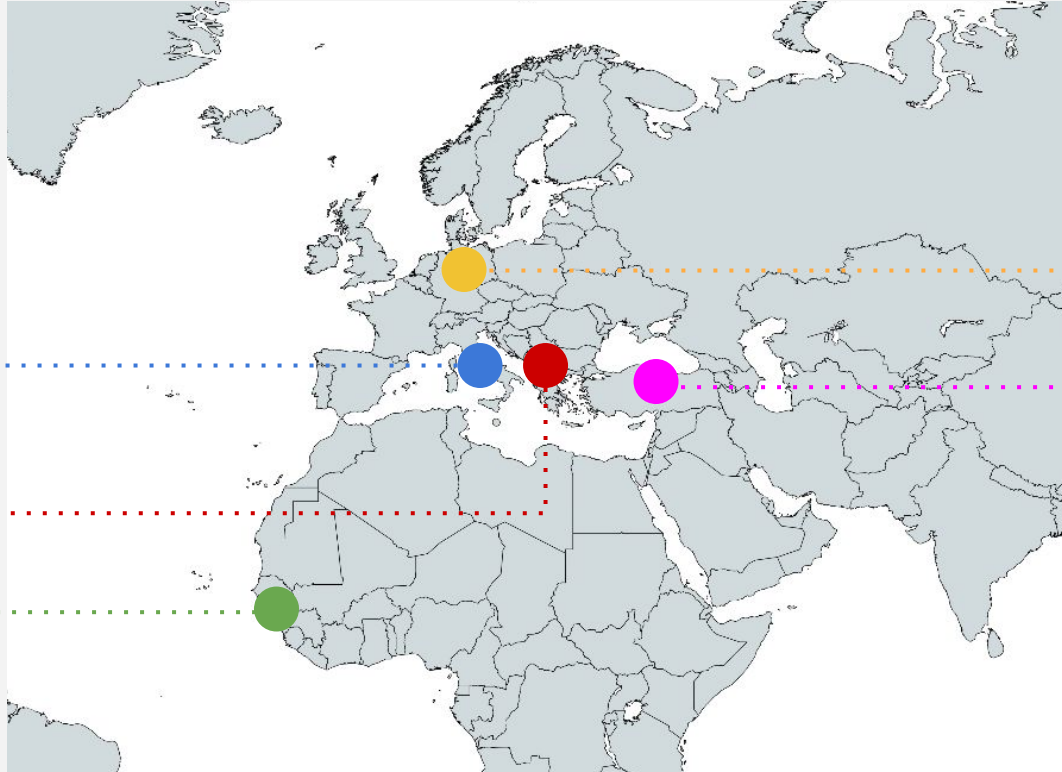

An online campaign on women's privacy violations around the globe

Our team

Matteo &
Stefano

Anjeza

Isatou

Matthias

Dilhun

The story of Maha

- Maha is 31 year old woman
- from Yemen, Aden

Our goal

- raise awareness for privacy violations
- try to give insight on the international scale of this problem
- show how social, cultural and technological context matter
- highlight differences of legislative frameworks

Switch

NGOs and initiatives

Fighting against gender-based violence online (hate speech, cyberstalking, ...)

Organization promoting female representation in the STEM academic world, following the idea “a sustainable future is an equitable one”

DigitalRightsFoundation
“KNOW YOUR RIGHTS”

Advocacy NGOs focusing in ICT for human rights and democratic process in Pakistan and South-East Asia

NETWORK OF
JOURNALISTS FOR DIGITAL RIGHTS

المنظمة الوطنية للإعلاميين اليمنيين
The National Organization of Yemeni Reporters (SADA)

How?

- Using the power of real stories of women who have faced privacy violations
- Researched stories and their backgrounds from different countries
- A website showcasing the stories for the readers to explore them and the regulations governing online privacy in various countries

Similar to how PrivacyGuides works

Privacy Guides

www.privacyguides.org

The website

Our Vision

beyond our project

As a student project our resources are limited, lets imagine they are not:

- Make our Website known using:
 - Loooots of Stickers
 - Social Media
 - Search engine optimisation
- Cooperating with other ngos to promote change
- Add links on the website to petitions or local ngos to support them

